THE RESULT OF THE PRIMARIES IN VAN BUREN COUNTY

Vote Cast Does Not Show Full Party Strength. But Few Contests.

The tabulated report on this page tells the complete story of the Primary Election in Van Buren county last Tuesday. The two big contests of the day were for member of the state legislature and probate judge, and the campaigning in the closing hours of the campaign was fast and furious all over the county. In the legislative contest, in which there were five candidates, Weidenfeller of Bloomington led the field under the wire in an exciting finish. Roosevelt of Keeler who had withdrawn from the race, but too late to prevent his name from being printed on the ticket, received quite a sprinkling of votes from all parts of the county. In the probate contest the fight was between Wm. J. Barnard and Wm. C. Mosier, both from Paw Paw. Letters and circulars played an important part in this race in the closing hours and when the votes were all counted, it was found that Barnard had been nominated by a very decisive vote. As will be noted in the tabulated vote, the "Bull Moose" enrollment in the county was decidedly light. Two reasons can be given for this condition. One, a lack of interest or sympathy with the "Third Party
